PURPOSE & ELIGIBILITY

What is TRiO?

The Federal TRiO programs are educational opportunity outreach programs designed to motivate and support students from disadvantaged and underserved populations. TRiO includes eight outreach programs targeted to serve and assist low income, first-generation college students, and students with disabilities to progress through the academic pipeline from middle school to baccalaureate programs. The term "TRiO" was coined in the late 1960's to describe the original three programs which are Educational Talent Search, Upward Bound, and Student Support Services.

Program Purpose

TRiO Student Support Services (SSS) is a program designed to help eligible students earn an associate's degree and transfer to a four-year school to earn a bachelor's degree.

Funded by the U.S. Department of Education, TRiO SSS offers its participants an array of services designed to make their college careers successful. From an assigned TRiO SSS Advisor who is dedicated to each student's success to free tutoring and success workshops, participation in TRiO helps students make the most of their college education.

Eligibility Guidelines

Students are eligible for TRiO Student Support Services if their background includes one or more of the following:

- First-generation college students (neither parent has earned a bachelor's degree)
- Low income family
- Learning or physical disability

 Applicants must also be U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the U.S.*

DID YOU KNOW?
